Mike Duke is a financial advisor specializing in qualified plans. Prior to joining Lawing, he worked for various law firms, CPA firms and he was co-founder and CEO of several qualified plan companies. In addition, Mike served on the board of directors at Nationwide Federal Savings Bank and Trust Company for several years.

Mike holds his Series 7, 24, 53, 63, and 65 registrations, Life and Health insurance licenses, as well as his Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF) and Certified Retirement Counselor (CRC) credentials. He attended Dallas Baptist University where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting. Mike also served in the U.S. Army for two years.

Mike grew up in Dallas and now lives in Rockwall, Texas. In his free time, he enjoys train and quail hunting with his English setters and German short hair pointers.